

Awards

- Peabody Award for the PBS Newshour coverage of the Covid reports in the Middle East
- Emmy nomination for the PBS Newshour coverage from Afghanistan
- Emmy nomination for the PBS Newshour coverage of the fall of ISIS in Baghouz, Syria
- Red Cross Award for Swedish TVs coverage of the Beirut Explosion
- “Child slaves – Kindersklaven” won
 - a nomination for the Emmys in the category Current Affairs
 - won the CNN Award for best reportage
 - a gold medal at the World Media Festival for Global Issues Documentary
 - a Silver World medal at the New York Festivals
 - the Amnesty International Film Award for Human Rights
 - the German Human Rights Film Award
 - Axel Springer Award for best television reportage
 - Kindernothilfepreis – child aid award
 - the TV3 International Award by the Catalan Broadcasting Corporation
 - the Ernst-Schneider-Prize of the German Chambers of Commerce for best television reportage
 - And a nomination for the German Television Award
- Dirty Games“ won
 - three medals at the New York Filmfestival one of them the Silver medal for Cinematography
 - Best Documentary at the Hollywood International Independent Award
 - Best Foreign Feature at the Hollywood International Independent Award
 - Best Documentary at Snowdance
 - Best Documentary at StarDoc in Hollywood
- Pharmasklaven – pharma slaves“
 - was nominated for the German Human Rights Film Award 2012
- Kinderschinder” won the
 - Kindernothilfe – child aid award 2011
 - a special mentioning at the Catholic Media award
- “Nightmare in Dreamland” wins a Humanity Explored Audience Award